LONDON HIGHLIGHTS

3 – 7 hrs

Discover this fascinating city with your own private guide, perfect for first time visitors wanting to see the highlights.

7 hours is recommended for an in-depth day with visits inside one or two of the most historic sites such as the Tower of London, Westminster Abbey and St Paul's Cathedral. 3 hours recommended for a flexible, panoramic tour with photo stops.

See all the major sites from Buckingham Palace, the home of King Charles III and the centuries old Changing of the Guard (schedule permitting) to the Tower of London with the dazzling collection of Crown Jewels. Drive through London's Royal Parks, see Big Ben and Parliament and Westminster Abbey, our coronation church, ever in the news this year!

See Trafalgar Square, Piccadilly Circus, Covent Garden, the Thames River and take a wander through the narrow streets and alleyways of the financial City of London, once destroyed by a fire, then by a war, but like a phoenix and its spectacular Cathedral, St Paul's, it rises again and again.

GRAFFITI WORKSHOP

2 hrs

Become part of London's history by leaving your mark on the city's walls. Graffiti is nothing new – London's citizens have been scrawling their names and desires onto its walls since time began. Take a look at any of our buildings and you're guaranteed to find the personal marks of both the long-dead and the living who have lingered there with mischievous intent.

Street art and graffiti is legendary in London, and it has long been part of the pop culture, politics and anarchy that have built up the fabric of the city.

Have a once in a lifetime experience where you will work with an actual street artist to create an awesome mural. Learn some of the tricks of the trade, collaborating with the artist and become one with London street culture.

You will be provided with gloves, overalls, masks and an assortment of spray paints. Guided by the artist, you will practise techniques before spray painting the wall with a design and logo important to you. The space is live and real – please be aware there may be other street artists working around you.

This can be coupled with a street art walking tour in one of the coolest areas of London.

STONEHENGE INNER CIRCLE

6 hrs

A wonderful chance to walk within this giant pre-historic monument and spend time within the tranquil inner circle. In the evening after Stonehenge is closed to the public, or at dawn before it is open, visit the awe-inspiring Stonehenge. Learn the secrets of the stones and marvel at how stones of such monumental scale were quarried, transported, worked into shape and erected 5,000 years ago when the only tools available were made of wood, bone and stone.

A truly spiritual experience!

Prices on Request

STONEHENGE & AVEBURY OR SALISBURY

8 hrs

Combine a visit to Britain's most famous prehistoric monument, Stonehenge with either the charming cathedral city of Salisbury or the megalithic stone circle surrounding the village of Avebury.

Salisbury is the site of the incredible 13th Century Cathedral that boasts the tallest spire in England and holds one of the four original copies of the Magna Carta. The Cathedral is a truly remarkable sight and set within the beautiful Cathedral Close, with wonderful historic homes originally built for the clergy and surrounded by high walls with medieval gates.

The very small city of Salisbury is delightful to wander around, the river Avon runs through the city and you will find many quaint buildings, an ancient mediaeval church and one of the oldest pubs in England with a very curious relic to be found inside.

Avebury, less well known than Stonehenge, fascinating site's first stones predate those at Stonehenge by at least 200 years and form the largest stone circle in the world which you can wander around.

Cost per party		8 hours
Deluxe	Up to 3	£1090
Extra Large	Up to 6	£1090

BATH & STONEHENGE

11hrs

Visit one of the most mystical monuments in the world, Stonehenge. Dating back 5000 years, you will marvel at the incredible effort it would have taken to build this stone circle aligned with the summer and winter solstice. A spiritual and breath-taking experience awaits you as you discover with your guide more about the people that lived during this time, how they lived, where they lived, what they lived in and what could be the possible motivations behind the construction of Stonehenge.

Then on to the world heritage city of Bath, one of the most beautiful cities in the country. Bath is surrounded by the Mendip Hills and the cross-country drive to arrive here showcases some of England's stunning countryside. The whole city built in a beautiful honey-coloured stone, quarried nearby is what gives Bath its unique and beautiful look. Bath is a true gem of a city!

You can visit the Roman Baths, a series of spas and leisure facilities built by the Romans, taking water from the only hot spring in the country. The Baths are incredibly well preserved and give an amazing insight into the lives of the Romans who frequented them.

OXFORD OR CAMBRIDGE

6 hrs

Visit the ancient university city of Oxford with its beautiful colleges with their gardens and quads which cover much of the city. Wander through narrow alleyways with their 15th Century taverns often crowded with jostling students. These streets have inspired authors such as Tolkien, C S Lewis and Lewis Carroll. Perhaps visit inside the college founded by Henry VIII, whose chapel is also the city's cathedral. Or visit the college nestled beside the city walls and has the oldest dining hall of both Oxford and Cambridge. It is as if life has stood still as the colleges retain so many of their ancient traditions.

Or visit Cambridge to wander through the shady courts of another of England's ancient universities. Many of the manicured gardens of the colleges run down to the River Cam, an integral part of the city. Above the river stands the imposing mass of King's College Chapel one of the greatest surviving Gothic buildings of Europe - a jewel box that, on sunny mornings, sparkles with all the colours of its remarkable stained-glass windows. By the Cam stands Trinity College's Wren Library one of Europe's finest library buildings.

Cost per party		6 hours

WINDSOR, STONEHENGE & OXFORD

12hrs very fast paced tour (summer only)

9hrs – any combination of 2 sites

Visit magnificent Windsor Castle, the oldest and largest occupied castle in the world. A Royal residence with nearly 1000 years of history. See the magnificent State Apartments, St. George's Chapel - final resting place of 11 monarchs, including Queen Elizabeth II and Queen Mary's Dolls' House, perfect to the tiniest detail.

Continue to the mystical Stonehenge for a spiritual encounter at this 5000 year old monument. How did our ancestors transport these massive stones weighing up to 50 tonnes from so far away and why?

Return via Oxford, England's oldest university dating back to the 11th century with its beautiful and ornate colleges, libraries and gardens and steeped in ancient tradition. Time permitting, go inside one of the colleges, famed for educating 'old boys' such as Oscar Wilde, Tolkien and CS Lewis.

Cost per party		9 hours	12 hours

COTSWOLDS COUNTRY

9hrs (Option to include Oxford or Blenheim Palace)

Head to the most idyllic and beautiful part of the country for an unforgettable day out in an area where it feels as if time has stood still. Nestling in the low range of Cotswolds hills to the west of Oxford are some of England's prettiest villages: Shipton-under-Wychwood, Upper and Lower Slaughter, as well as Stow-on-the-Wold and Broadway. All the houses and the churches, the mills and the pubs are built in the local Cotswold stone, a beautiful honey coloured limestone which catches the light of the summer sun and gives the area its distinctive and wistful character. Stop for lunch in a wonderfully characterful English Inn and enjoy tea in one of the many local authentic cafes.

Just on the edge of the Cotswolds is magnificent Blenheim Palace, home of the Dukes of Marlborough and where Winston Churchill was born. Also close by, opt to take time to explore the ancient university city of Oxford. The mediaeval colleges and some of the finest of the University buildings are also built with the golden Cotswold limestone.

Cost per party		9 hours
Deluxe	Up to 3	£1130

STRATFORD AND WARWICK

11 hrs (Stratford only 9 hrs)

Drive through the gentle rolling hills of the Cotswolds, peppered with pretty villages and honey coloured stone dwellings on your way to historic Stratford-upon-Avon, immortalised by William Shakespeare. Go inside the small house where Shakespeare was born and lived with his large family in very close quarters.

Stroll through the picturesque streets, along past the river and the mediaeval houses and the sixteenth century grammar school which Shakespeare probably attended, to Holy Trinity Church where Shakespeare and his wife are buried. Head then to the nearby village to visit the charming cottage where Anne Hathaway grew up.

Include Warwick Castle in 11 hours. Warwick Castle's history stretches back over 1000 years to an early hilltop fortification. The first castle was constructed in 1068 by William the Conqueror. Today it is the epitome of a medieval fortress and, with waxworks, archery displays and a castle dungeon, it is great fun for kids.

Please note that you will not have time to see Anne Hathaway's cottage if you visit Warwick.

CANTERBURY, LEEDS CASTLE & DOVER

12 hrs very fast paced tour (summer only)

9 hrs – any combination of 2 sites

An outstanding day trip to the South-east of England, with a little bit of everything. Drive through the beautiful Kent countryside, 'The Garden of England' to the lovely city of Canterbury. The 12th Century Cathedral, 'The Mother Church of England' is an architectural marvel.

Dover Castle sits atop the famous White Cliffs, overlooking the English Channel and has provided this small isle with security for many a century. The cliffs immortalised by Dame Vera Lynn, were a welcome sight for 'The Few', during WWII.

The 11th Century Dover Castle is one of our favourites, with everything you expect from a castle and more, complete with underground tunnels used to coordinate one of the greatest evacuations during WWII, Dunkirk!

Leeds Castle, in a picture-perfect setting, one of the prettiest in England, where many Queens made their home and today one of the most instagrammed castles in Britain.

STATELY HOMES, CASTLES AND GARDENS

6 - 9 hrs

Britain is famed for its wealth of Castles, beautiful Gardens and stunning Stately Homes. Some options below:

Arundel Castle, built in the 11th century with a finely preserved interiors, period furniture, art masterpieces, gorgeous tapestries and charming tranquil gardens.

Blenheim Palace, the splendid 18th century home of the Churchill family with magnificent parkland and gardens.

Chartwell, Winston Churchill's country home.

Hever Castle, a moated 13th century fairy tale castle, childhood home of Anne Boleyn.

Hidcote Manor, an amazingly beautiful garden designed by the American Major Lawrence Johnston.

Kew Gardens, no garden can match the sheer variety of plants and shrubs as the Royal Botanic Gardens.

Sissinghurst, world famous gardens created by Vita Sackville-West around the tower of Sissinghurst Castle.

Waddesdon Manor, a palace built by Baron de Rothschild with fine antiques and a garden recently restored to its original glory.

Knole, Henry VIII's Tudor mansion built around 7 courtyards with 52 staircases and 365 rooms.

Leeds Castle, over 1000 years old, built on two islands in the middle of a lake and surrounded by beautiful gardens.

THAMES VALLEY

7 hrs

Just a short drive from London is the stunning Thames Valley, steeped in history and renowned for its tranquil beauty. Ever since the Monarchs of England started using the Thames to travel up and down from London to other Royal Residences, pretty villages and towns have grown up along the route.

Visit some of the loveliest riverside villages, surrounded by wooded hills and lush green fields, with pleasure boats moored along the river, you can soak up the relaxed pace of life and enjoy lunch in a typical English Inn or a traditional café. Choose perhaps to pass through the more historic towns such as Eton and Windsor that have developed on the banks of England's greatest river.

Literary connections in the Thames Valley have helped to create the feel of a particularly English way of life. From 'Three Men in a Boat' to 'The Wind in the Willows' the Thames reflects all that is typically 'olde worlde' England. Where the pace of life was slower and people had time to enjoy the good things in life.

DOWNTON ABBEY TOUR

8 hrs (advance booking is a must as Highclere castle has limited availability...ask us for alternatives if sold out)

An absolute must for any fan of the much-loved Downton Abbey series and films. On this truly memorable day out, walk firmly in the footsteps of the Crawley clan as you wander the pretty streets of the charming 'Downton Village'. Visit the delightful church, where four of the weddings took place including both of Lady Mary's. See the exterior of the hospital, take a photo outside Isobel Crawley's house, and much more!

Not far way, you can enjoy a lunch or refreshment in the pub where Lady Sybil eloped with her chauffeur, Branson.

Then to Highclere Castle which served as the Crawley's home. The magnificent mansion was remodelled in the 19th century and will transport you back in time, right into the heart of Downton Abbey. You will see the castle's salon, library, dining room and entrance hall and staircase which all feature so prominently in the series as the setting for the Crawley's family home.

If you love Downton Abbey as we do, this is simply the best tour ever!

BLETCHLEY PARK OR RAF DUXFORD

6 hrs

Bletchley Park –A fascinating insight into the codebreaking efforts at Bletchley Park during WWII. The code breakers housed here, helped shorten the war by two years. Churchill's 'geese that laid the golden eggs and never cackled' broke the army, navy and Luftwaffe codes and also the code for all communication between Hitler's bunker and his field commanders.

After decades of secrecy, ending only in 1974, and recent sensitive restoration, the Park offers a unique insight of the world of the code breakers and their machines. Walk in the footsteps of Alan Turing, father of the modern computer, and Ian Fleming who worked in the real James Bond world. See the working Bombe machines that helped crack the codes of the enigma machines that had 159 million million million different settings.

Duxford – At the start of the second World War, this was a Royal Air Force fighter base, its squadrons equipped with Spitfires and Hurricanes. The control tower and two of the hangars are original. Today the fascinating collection concentrates on British and American military aircraft from both world wars.

NORMANDY BY PRIVATE PLANE

1 day

An unforgettable and emotional once in a lifetime experience.

Board a twin-engine jet and fly across the English Channel. During the flight your expert guide, who specialises in WWII and the Normandy Landings, with the help of charts, will brief you on the strategic situation in Europe during the months leading up to D-Day - naval, air, military strengths on both western and eastern fronts; Hitler's command style against Churchill and Roosevelt and the tactical dilemmas facing both sides.

Landing at Cherbourg Airport in France meet your driver to start an overland tour of the Normandy D-Day Beaches.

Visit Omaha Beach, a peaceful four mile stretch of sand which belies the ferocity of the fighting that befell it on June 6th 1944, the Normandy American Cemetery at St Laurent where almost 10,000 Americans lie buried and over 1,500 missing Americans are commemorated, and the Pointe du Hoc cliffs scaled by 2 US Rangers on D- Day. The cliff heights are still deeply pitted with German bunkers and shell holes.

Stop at a local fishing port for a delicious lunch, and visit St. Mere Eglise, the first town to be liberated by the Allies, where a replica of the paratrooper hangs from the church.

Return to Cherbourg Airport for your return flight. Incredible experience! Prices on Request.
